

The Miami Herald

Fort Lauderdale mayor appears on radio

August 10, 2007

BY DIANA MOSKOVITZ

Fort Lauderdale's headline-grabbing mayor is taking calls Friday morning on a local radio program, just a month after his latest stir.

Naugle is co-hosting Mitchell & Morley in the Morning with Kelley Mitchell until 9 a.m. on WFTL-AM (850).

Last month, Naugle proposed that Fort Lauderdale buy a $250,000 single-occupancy toilet for the beach to cut down on men having sex with each other in public bathrooms. He later added his opposition to moving the Stonewall Library, a collection of gay materials, into a city building.

The comments sparked an anti-Naugle rally at City Hall that included Matt Foreman, executive director of The National Gay and Lesbian Task Force.

Naugle said he hopes people from the gay community will call the radio show so he has a chance to speak to them one on one.

Listeners can call 877-850-8585 through out the show for comments.