Matt Foreman, executive director of the National Gay and Lesbian Task Force, spoke Friday at the 20th annual National Conference on LGBT Equality: Creating Change.

Foreman delivered the State of the Movement address to roughly 2,000 attendees at the conference, which runs through Sunday at the Renaissance Marriott Hotel.

In his speech, Foreman highlighted the fact that several states and communities passed antidiscrimination laws over the past year.

"Now more than ever, winning complete equality isn't only possible, it's inevitable and you're going to make that happen," he said.

Bishop V. Gene Robinson, the Episcopal Bishop of New Hampshire, is to speak today.
